COUNTY POOR FARM

On yesterday Supervisors Wood and Guthrie, of Buckingham, and Snell, of Charlotte, were here in response to appointment, looking to the establishment of a joint poorhouse farm. The counties have been endeavoring to do this for a long time, but nothing has ever been done. Time is wasted and no results obtained.

Buckingham has three paupers, Appomattox 3, Charlotte 2 or 3 and Prince Edward 2 or 3, and it is estimated that the counties pay out annually more than $5000 to keep up independent alms houses. Let each board pass a resolution appointing one member to buy a suitable farm and authorize him to sell the farm used by each county. All to be subject to approval of the respective boards. This can all be done probably within the next 30 days. Do you mean business, gentlemen, and want to economize? If so, go at it and quit talking

Citizens' Party Mass Meeting

On August 30 the Citizens' Party of Appomattox county assembled in mass meeting at the courthouse for the purpose of nominating and endorsing candidates for the various county offices.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather, about one hundred representative citizens were present. The party drew up resolutions of respect for the memory of the lamented Dr. Robertson, and adopted a platform. Havilah Babcock was elected chairman of the party and the following men were declared the party's nominees:

House of Delegates—Havilah Babcock.
Treasurer—H. C. Babcock.
Clerk—George F. Abbitt.
Sheriff—H. S. Coleman.
Commonwealth's Attorney—W. C. Franklin.

House of Delegates—D. A. Keller, rfd 2, Dillwyn.

New National Bank at Dillwyn

On Saturday, August 30, The First National Bank of Dillwyn was organized, at Dillwyn. Va., same to have $50,000 capital and $5,000 surplus.

The greatest portion of the stock was subscribed by local parties. There has been a great need tor additional banking facilities in Dillwyn, which, though having but 500 population, serves a larger district than many cities of 10,000 or more population.

B. H. Barnes, manager of the Albemarle Mills Co, was elected president and A. Sidney Spencer, a prominent farmer, was elected vice-president.

George W. Booth was appointed secretary and correspondent, pending the appointment of a cashier.

The new bank starts out with flattering prospects. The Directorate is as follows:

B. H. Barnes, manager Albemarle Mills Co., Dillwyn; A Sidney Spencer, farmer, Rival; A. H. Gilliam, manager Dillwyn tobacco market, Dillwyn; C. Staton, merchant, Dillwyn; W. A. Maxey, lumberman, Dillwyn; R. S Burruss, of Piedmont Lumber Co, Lynchburg; C. B. Harris, capitalist and real estate, Scottsville; W. T. Spencer, with Quinn-Marshall Co, Lynchburg; H. Culbreth, commission merchant, Dillwyn.

Hurtsville

Mr. John Webb's daughter, Verta, has been home on a visit. She brought Miss Rosser with her, which made a very jolly couple. Their visit was enjoyed by the people of this section.

People of this section are cutting tobacco very fast and it would be a very wise plan to give it plenty of room, so as not to house-burn it, as the crop is short and there will be plenty of room; and another good plan I think would be to plow up the tobacco stubble and make a good seed bed early, as an early crop of wheat is never bothered much by rust.

Possession Begets Desire.

A man doesn't really know what money will do for him until he has a lot of it. That is why men want more as they get more. The same is true of knowledge, or fame, or friends, or religion.

Further Elucidation Needed.

Dr. Hugo Ribbert of Bonn, Germany, in a book "Death From Old Age," tells that the way to stay young is to keep going. In other words, if you run around fast enough Old Nick will not be able to catch you. This is good advice, so far as it goes, but it is not all the answer.

Keep your money at work for you. Re-invest your Liberty Bond interest in W. S. S.

REMEMBER THE ANT

Save and have!

Remember the story of the ant and the grasshopper? The ant worked and saved. The end of each day found him with a little more added to what he had the day before. The grasshopper danced and sang and fiddled his time away. Winter came; the ant had plenty. The grasshopper had nothing; he had not saved. He went to the ant and asked for help. Said the ant: "While I worked, you fooled your time away. You can dance now for all I care."

Are you an ant-person or a grasshopper-person? Some time are you going to have to ask for help and will someone tell you to dance; or will you be independent?

If you save now, you'll have later on. Let the end of every week find more Thrift Stamps on your card. At the end of every month be able to show more War Savings Stamps pasted on your certificate. Lend your money to the government at 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly, and see it grow.

Take stock of yourself! What are you worth? Will next New Year's Day find you worth more or less? Which will you be; an ant or a grasshopper?

United States Senate.

Each United States senator is elected for six years, unless he is chosen to fill the unexpired term of some senator who has died or resigned. On March 4 in every "odd year"—1919, etc.—the terms of 32 senators expire; that is, one-third of the whole number. By this plan there is never an entirely new senate. Even if no members were re-elected, two-thirds of the membership would always consist of men who have had either two or four years' service.

Indian Potlatch.

Potlatch is a corruption of an Indian word common among the Pacific coast tribes, meaning a festival of gifts. At a potshatl (potlatch) celebration the more personal property an Indian gives away, blankets, ornaments, etc., the higher he stands in the estimation of his neighbors, and the more he expects to receive in return at the next potlatch. The festival is accompanied by music, dancing and feasting.

The Target at Fault.

A company of militia had been out all day for target practice, and on their return the captain said to one of the sergeants: "How are your men coming along, sergeant?" "Well, sir," said the sergeant, with an air of great pride, "my men shot very well today, very well, but they would have shot better perhaps if the target had stood a little more to the left!"

CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She Is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Royse City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Kilman, of this place, says; "After the birth of my little girl...my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me...but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable...I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot...

I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."

Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial. J. 71

BANKS TO SAFEGUARD BONDS AND STAMPS

Are Ready to Protect Securities of Small Investors Free or For Nominal Charge.

In buying Liberty Bonds, Victory Bonds, Thrift and War Savings Stamps the people of the United States have done more than perform a patriotic duty—they have invested in the soundest securities in the world, gold obligations of the United States of America.

But the safeguarding of these securities has become a problem for many folk. Only a few persons, relatively, have either a safe in the house or office, or a safe-deposit box in the vaults of the bank. Far too many patriotic citizens are keeping bonds and stamps about the house, in the bureau drawer, under the mattress, or on the shelf. And even if the treasure is thus hidden from thieves, there is the ever present danger of fire, and the loss of the money invested.

There may be no further call for the people at large to subscribe to huge bond issues, but the government needs the daily and weekly sums which come in from the sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps for taxes must be kept down. The danger of loss has deterred some people from getting as many stamps as they might otherwise buy. Hence the problem will be a future question as well as a present one.

Steps have been taken, however, to meet this situation.

First, every bond or stamp certificate may be registered with the Treasury Department. Registration means that the owner's name and the number of his security have been "registered" by the government, and that nobody but himself can possibly get the money which the bond or stamp certificate calls for. Certificates may be registered through the nearest postoffice; bonds through the nearest bank.

And the second method for safeguarding has been provided by the banks themselves. Every bank—national bank or savings bank—and every trust company has, of course, ample and secure vaults. For the man who does not feel that he can afford to rent a safe deposit box to keep Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps in, many of the banks and trust companies have announced their willingness to keep these securities for him in their own vaults.

STRONG MEN WEEP SAYS DR. DAVIS

Former Red Cross Commissioner Tells of Recent Trip to Poland.

FOUND CHILDREN STARVING.

American Jews Raising $35,000,000 to Save Survivors—Plan to Aid Christians as Well as Own People.

"The tragedy of the next few months in Eastern Europe bids fair to equal, if not to surpass, that of the actual war years themselves. Words are utterly inadequate to describe the suffering from poverty, starvation, disease and other allied causes that is met on every hand. Literally hundreds of thousands of the unfortunate victims of circumstances are looking to America as their only hope, but it is a question if America has not heard so much of suffering in recent months that she is numbed and perhaps cannot fully realize the terrible crisis that now confronts vast numbers of people abroad."

The above gives in brief the carefully considered opinion of no less an authority than Dr. Haim I. Davis, well known neurologist of Chicago, who returned a short time ago from Poland, where he served for some months as American Red Cross commissioner and made an intensive study of economic, social and political conditions with a special view to determining America's present and future responsibilities. At the request of Louis Marshall, Felix M. Warburg, Jacob H. Schiff of New York, Julius Rosenwald of Chicago and other prominent members of the American Jewish Relief Committee, Dr. Davis submitted a special summary of conditions in Poland. This report, together with additional information secured from other commissioners abroad, forms the basis for the appeal which the above committee is making for $35,000,000 this year to save the lives of war's victims in those countries where the situation is most dire. The headquarters are at 15 East 40th Street, New York.

"If America could be given but a glimpse of the childhood of Poland," says Dr. Davis, "the millions of dollars that are needed would be forthcoming instantly. The common lot of literally thousands of these youngsters, both Christian and Jewish, makes strong men weep and has actually been the cause of a number of investigators for various organizations leaving the country before their work was completed.

"Walk down the streets in certain sections of Warsaw, Vilna, Kovno and other cities in Eastern Europe and you will see mother after mother, themselves emaciated, carrying children who are apparently infants of a few months, but in reality are five to eight years old. For years they had no milk, and all the other food procurable has been sufficient only to keep them alive. Undernourishment has been so long continued that the little bodies are stunted, rickets being a common affliction, and many of them can never be restored to normal health and strength.

"The lives of thousands can still be saved, however," the doctor told the Jewish Committee in his report, "if food is rushed over quickly.

"It is in the name of the pitiful children of Poland, the babies of Christian as well as Jewish parents, that I urge you to make your appeal to America for the funds that will restore their birthright to these little ones."

RABBIS BLESS MEAT AS STEAMSHIP LOADS

First Kosher Meat in Five Years Goes to European Jews as Gift.

New York.—Included in the more than $8,000,000 worth of supplies sent abroad by American Jewish relief agencies thus far this year were several hundred tons of "kosher" meat. The steamer Ashburn, which left here some time ago for Danzig, carried 500 tons of this commodity, while the Huachuca, which has just sailed, is carrying a smaller consignment to Constanza, Rumania.

Unusual interest attaches to both these shipments. Prominent Jews of this city inspected the first cargo. Jewish rabbis blessed the barrels of meat as they were lowered into the ship's hold. The meat was a gift from the Jews of America to their coreligionists in Poland and other parts of Europe. These European Jews have eaten virtually no meat in five years, for their religion prohibits them using meat other than that killed by a rabbi and in an orthodox manner, and "kosher" meat has been unobtainable.

Among the other supplies sent in these regular shipments are soap, clothing, shoes and shoe-repairing materials, large quantities of notions, medicines, hospital supplies and a long list of additional articles, every one of which is lacking in the war-wrecked countries across the Atlantic.

Funds to continue these regular sailings of relief ships are now being sought by the American Jewish Relief Committee, whose headquarters are at 15 East 40th Street, this city. Louis Marshall is chairman and Henry H. Rosenfelt director of this organization. Campaigns are scheduled for this fall in some twenty states, and it is expected to bring the total contributions for Jewish relief this year up to $35,000,000.

Not to Be Thought Of.

Jamie was asking his mother a lot of silly questions, such as, "Why are your eyes blue?" His mother said. "Why do you ask such silly questions when I am trying to read?" "Well," responded Jamie, "do you want your little boy to grow up without a vocabulary in his mind?"

Added Information.

Little Vivian was repeating the Lord's prayer after her mother one evening, and when she reached that part which relates to our daily bread she paused and said: "Mamma, 'ou might mention to Dod zat I like butter on it."

This Ad is run especially for the eye of those who live away from Richmond.

Last week a nice account was opened through the mail by a resident of Southside Virginia.

On the signature card, in answer to the question "Introduced by whom?" he replied, "Times-Dispatch!"

Many of our customers live out of town, and transact their business by mail.

We want others!

Please note the attractive terms:

3% interest allowed on daily balances, subject to check in the usual way.
